charge of the programme. Monday evening a surprise party was given Mr. H. S. Slack at his home, 16 Union street, the occasion being his thirtysecond birthday anniversary. About fifty persons were present, including twenty from the Big Four railway offices, where Mr. Slack is employed. In the course of the evening his office associates presented him with a handsome watch charm. The evening was spent pleasantly in music and

The Gray Club will give its fifth annual reception and ball on Thursday evening at Tomlinson Hall. The grand march begins at 8:30. The arrangement committee consists of Messrs. Thomas A. Bynum, Charles C. Kuhn, Scott A. Bronson, Thomas E. Shannon, Fred McClellan, Thomas L. Davis, James Riley, Al H. Moore and Frank Duncan, Extensive preparations have been made by the committee to make the affair a success.

"An acquaintance sends you an invitation to his wedding, at the church, others are invited to the reception at their house to which you receive no invitation, are you expected to send a present?" The giving of presents at any time is a matter of choice. No one is expected to send a present; that is not what invitations are for. The giving of presents has become altogether too common, and to give them a present unless a true personal friend of the parties interested is not good form.

Mr. Hary Coonse, formerly of this city, now a resident of North Yakima, Yakima county, Washington, was married Jan. 1 to Miss Minnie F. Sinclair, the Rev. Monroe Drew, of the Presbyterian Church, officiating. The paper of that city says of Mr. 'oonse: "Mr. Coonse has lived in Yakima for four or five years, coming here to accept a clerkship in the United States land office under Register Ira M. Krutz. Since that time he has held the position of deputy auditor and deputy treasurer, and was spoken of for treasurer at the time of the death of his chief, G. O. Nevin. He is a square, honest young man, of whom his friends predict a bright future. Mrs. Coonse is the daughter of one of the most prominent men of the place and is a great favorite with every one'

The seventy-eighth birthday of Dr. W. H. Wishard was celebrated Tuesday evening at his home, 264 North Tennessee street. There were at the table twelve persons whose average age is a little over seventy-five years; brothers and sisters with their like companions. His sons and daughters were present. Congratulatory telegrams were received from distant friends and relatives. Ex-President Harrison sent a souvenir with personal inscription. Dr. Wishard told afterdinner stories, and reminiscences from the time of the Black Hawk war to the present date. Dr. Wishard has been in continuous medical practice fifty-four years next April in this vicinity without personal sickness of vacation, and has treated one patient fiftytwo years.

The Mary Washington National Memorial Association will give an old-fashioned tea party to-morrow evening at the new residence of Mrs. Charles F. Sayles, No. 665 North Meridian street. The members have made preparations for a handsome entertainment, and a large number of invitations have been sent out to the friends of the members. The party will be from 7 to 12 o'clock. There will be an oldentime supper and dancing in the ball room. Some beautiful new costumes have been arranged for the event and the party will be a picture similar to the one seen at Mrs. Dean's on New Year's night. All the members of the association are asked to wear powdered hair and evening dress. The desire for this costuming is not obligatory, but will add to the fine effect if generally followed. The party will be one of the most notable events of the week.

A few days ago invitations were sent out to about thirty friends by Mrs. James I. Lodge for the reading of her story "A Bit of Finesse," to be given yesterday afternoon at her home on North Pennsylvania street. At the appointed hour most of those invited were at the house and interested in the story. Mrs. Lodge has been at work writing a story for some time and the ladies were treated to the reading of a part of the story. When completed it will be issued in book form and will be a novel. The writer gave yesterday a few chapters. The story deals with a Puritan girl who, from her home in the East, comes to the West, and the events of the tale are her experiences in society. The time of the story is about fifty years ago. The story is well told and has enough of the dramatic element to keep the close attention of the reader, or as it was yesterday, the listeners.

A social chat followed the reading of the story. The entertainment was a novel one. The Kindergarten tea to be given at the new residence of Mrs. E. G. Cornelius, No. 521 North Meridian street, next Friday afternoon and evening, will be a unique affair. It is to be a reproduction of the Midway Plaisance, especially the streets of Cairo. One room will be devoted to ! Hagenbeck's arena and another will represent China and Japan. Tea will be served and the decorations will consist of many articles which Mr. Henry D. Pierce brought from his travels in the Orient. There will be many curios, and Mr. Pierce and the ladies in charge of the department will be in costume. The ladies have secured the receipt of the famous bumbum candy which was sold in Cairo, and they will have a quantity of it for sale, Many things which were bought at the fair will be loaned for the event. The members of the third section have the tea in charge. The Maennerchor quartet. Messrs, Victor Jose, Charles Adam, F. Mack and Emil Steinhilber, will sing. Mrs.

Bernard Vonnegut will also be on the pro-

All the arrangements for the annual party of the Propylacum stockholders have been made and are in the hands of committees. | Casner on Wednesday evening Miss Callie party will be given at the Propylacum the evening of the 29th, and will be the most notable social event of the season. Invitations have been arranged on a simple scale. Each stockholder is entitled to invite as many friends as she owns shares of stock. There are a number of ladies who own more shares than they have numbers of friends to invite and these extra shares are given to the curator of the Propylacum, Mrs. Hail, and they may be had by those who only have one or two shares and desire more. The tickets may be secured of Mrs. Hall at the Propylacum and nowhere else. Among those who are responsible for the affairs of the party are Mrs. Henry D. Pierce, who is the president of the general committee, and Mrs. Spruance, who is the The committee on decorations includes Mesdames Henry Schurmann and W. H. Coleman, heads; Mesdames E. C. Atkins, S. Morrison, Harold Hibben, A. M. Ogle, J. E. Roberts, E. S. W. H. Hubbard, Seguin. Misses Roach and Miss Committee on refreshments: Mesdames G. W. Sloan, G. N. Catterson and Eli Lilly, heads, and P. Gray, Charles Rockwood, John Moore, G. R. Sullivan, N. F. Daltor Benjamin Kelsey, C. F. Robbins, Bradshaw, Miss Mattle Stewart, Mesdames N. Slivester, Thomas Bassett, W. McKee, T. C. Day, William M. Taylor, J. C. Dean, D. L. Whittier, Thomas Dean, A. B. Mansur, C. F. Sayles, T. L. Sullivan, D. P. Erwin, Emil Wulschner, Albert Gall, C. I. Fletcher, Louis Hollweg, J. Hurty, Byron Hutchinson and F. W. Hays. Mrs. W. F. C. Golt is president of the committee on music and dancing, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Brown. The other members of the committee are Mr. W. F. C. Golt. president of the floor committee; Messrs. J. Brown, B. B. Peck, H. D. Pierce, R. Suilivan, B. D. Walcott, Henry Atkins, Frederick Ayres, Jesse Fletcher, Wil-Bender. The Landers and R. parlor will be furnished as an Oriental room, the east parlor in continental colors will be for the serving of the refreshments, and the hall for the dance. There will be a Venetian programme for the wall and pretty effects throughout. During the evening the cotillion will be danced and ribbon favors will be given. The dances will be the lancers, waltz, twostep and five-step, giving twelve dances, besides the cotillion. A number of guests from out of town are expected, and all women who live out of town and own shares are cordially asked to lend their presence and assistance in making the evening was spent in games, conversation and music. Light refreshments were served and the social spirit of the Y. P. S. C. E. was shown in many ways.

Yesterday afternoon the members of the Young Woman's Christian Association were at home informally with Mrs. J. A. Roberts at her residence on University avenue. The class of '97 of Butler University met on Tuesday evening in the Delta Tau Delta hall. After the usual class business was disposed of a pleasant social time was en-Joyed. At the last meeting of the N. C. C. Club the following officers were elected for the year of 1894; President, Mrs. F. Rollin Kautz; vice president, Mrs. T. C. Howe; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Layman. The club will meet next Saturday with Miss Evelyn Jeffries. Several of the ladies of Irvington are arranging an entertainment to be given in a few weeks for the benefit of increasing the public reading room fund. Rehearsals are now going on for the presentation of several scenes from Sheridan's "The Rivals." There will also be music by local talent and a fair to be held after the play.

The sophomore class attempted to eclipse all other colege classes in entertaining last Thursday evening. The hall where the reception was held was elaborately decorated with flowers and evergreen, while at one end, in huge, gilt letters, was suspended the date, 1898. Bunches of daisies, the classflower, tied with 1897's colors, purple and seafoam, were the favors. Those present included a large number of all the college students. Mrs. Charles B. Clarke gave a very delightful 4-o'clock tea on Tuesday afternoon to the ladies of the Reading Circle. Miss Georgia Butler read a paper on "Tennyson's Lyrics and Dramas," after which conversation followed. The parlor was attractively decorated with pink carnations and dainty refreshments of pink ices, coffee and cakes | day afternoon. were served. Mrs. F. R. Kautz will read a paper on Barrie's "Little Minister" at the regular club meeting to-morrow afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Layman entertained a few friends informally at her home on Central avenue, Friday evening, for the Misses Kate and Josephine Smith. After the company had assembled they were shown to the dining room where plates of candy were cooling. The candy was flavored and colored with strawberry and chocolate, and was specially successful. The center of the lining room table was occupied by a large silver basket, filled with fruit and pecan muts. Among those present were the Misses Smith, Misses Braden, Misses Butler, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Howe, Messrs. Henry Shell A. M. Hall, Harold Smith, William Howe

THAT WAS DIFFERENT. He Was Talking to a Man in the Business, Which Altered the Case.

Detriot Pree Press. In the cabin of a Windsor ferry-boat the other afternoon was a well-dressed man who carried his hand to his jaw now and then and uttered a stifled groan. After a bit a fellow passenger had his curiosity aroused and brusquely queried:

"Toothache?" "Is she holler?"

you'll never-

"I expect so." "Gives a sort of wiggle and then jumps on you now and then, don't she?" Yes, Great snakes, How I suffer." "I've been there and know all about it. If she's holler and has the jumps it ain't no use foolin' around. What you want to do is to go to a dentist "Um. Jerusha, but how it aches." "Go right to the dentist and have it yanked out. Man with the toothache always feels a little scared about having it yanked, but that's all imagination, you

"I'd rather be shot," groaned the suffer-"Oh, pshaw. Go to some dentist who gives laughing gas. He'll give you gas and take that tooth out without you knowing it. I pledge you my word it won't hurt any more than paring off a finger nath." "Um. What a liar, G'way from me." "Why, man, I pledge you my word that

"Don't talk to me. I know all about it. I've been a dentist myself for the last fifteen years." "Oh, you have," growled the other as he backed away. "Well, that's different. It will not only seem to you as if your blamed old head was being pulled off your shoulders, but your jaw will ache for two weeks after, and I'm durned glad of it, too." A Hopeless Case.

Detriot Tribune. She-And what did papa say when you asked him, dear? He-Excuse me, but I couldn't think of repeating such language in your presence.
